

Knit Programming Package Software

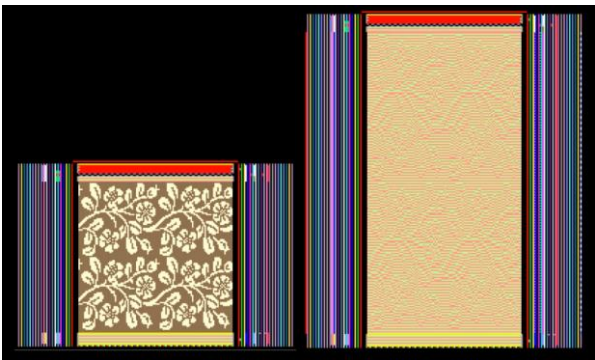

This course is to learn the general idea of Package software, its operations and its functions.
(This course includes intermediate and advanced contents of the knitting program. Difficult examples for beginners, such as knitting structures and shaping programs are used.)

◆◆ What you can learn in the course ◆◆

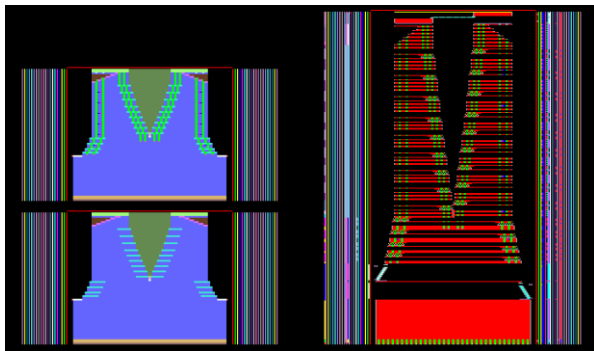

Basic knowledge of Package software:
Terms and specifications of Package software.

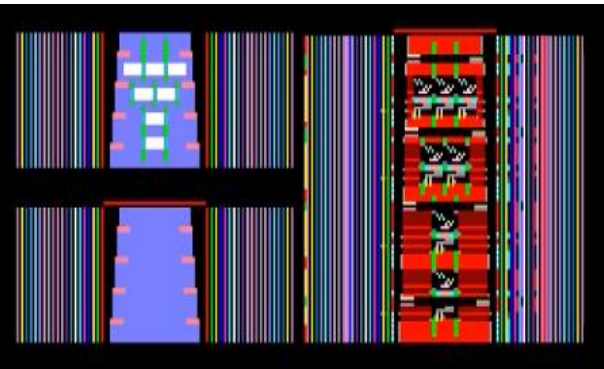

Free color mode:
Jacquard patterns and Shaping part creation by using Free color.

Paint color mode:
Programming with composing structure patterns by using Paint color.

Both mode:
Efficient programming using Paint color and Free color together.

Package application operations:
Efficient use of package and useful functions.

